

DAPTO
PUBLIC SCHOOL

Bill Blissenden

Attended Dapto Public School 1940 – 1945

- Bill Blissenden was a student at Dapto Public School from 1940 – 1945.
- His secondary schooling was completed at Wollongong High School, before he attended Sydney Teachers College.
- Following this, he continued his education at New England and Sydney Universities, obtaining a B.A., Litt. B. and M. Ed. (Hons).
- He is a fellow of the Australian College of Educators.
- After teaching in Primary Schools in NMSW and London, he transferred to Teacher's College (Balmain T.C, Kuring-gai CAE, C.C.E.S) then University (ACU).
- He specialised in Social Sciences before moving to Administration.
- He retired as an Associate Professor in 1995.

Bill Blissenden's fondest memories of Dapto Public School are of a small, happy place to learn and of Mr Hart, the Principal, who inspired him to become a teacher.