

Jim Webb

Attended Dapto Public School 1950 – 1956

- Jim Webb was a student at Dapto Public School from 1950 to 1956.
- He then continued his education at Wollongong High School.
- He completed a Bachelor of Science at the University of New South Wales.
- 1967 – 2004 : Jim taught in the State School system.
- 1972 – 1973: He taught Bruce McWilliam (another former Dapto PS Student included on our Wall of Fame) at Dapto High School.
- 2005 – 2012: Head Teacher Mathematics at Finley High School.
- Retired from teaching as Head Teacher Mathematics at Warilla High School.
- Jim is currently the secretary of the Kiama Lions Club and has been a member of this club for over 20 years.
- Jim and his wife Helen have three children who live locally with their respective families.
- They have a strong connection with the Kiama Anglican Churches.
- Jim's 5 siblings also attended Dapto Public School and you can also read about them on our Wall of Fame.